Quote from document

Incidence of nerve injury following acupuncture treatments in Taiwan Objective Acupuncture, a widely employed traditional therapeutic modality known for its efficacy in pain alleviation and diverse condition management, may inadvertently result in mechanical nerve injury due to its invasive nature. This research aimed to ascertain the incidence of nerve injuries post-acupuncture, identify associated risk factors, and map the distribution of nerve injury sites. Methods A case-control study nested in the National Health Insurance Research Database (NHIRD) 2000–2018 two million cohort was conducted. Patients previously diagnosed with nerve injury, surgery, or degeneration before acupuncture were excluded. Cases were defined as patients receiving acupuncture and seeking medical attention for nerve injury (ICD9-CM code 950–957) within 14 days post-procedure, while control groups comprised patients undergoing acupuncture without subsequent adverse events.

What are the findings or conclusions?

Here are the findings or conclusions.

The document investigates the incidence of nerve injuries following acupuncture treatments in Taiwan, aiming to identify the frequency of such injuries, associated risk factors, and the anatomical distribution of injury sites. The research utilizes a case-control study design based on data from the National Health Insurance Research Database (NHIRD) spanning from 2000 to 2018, focusing on patients who experienced nerve injuries within 14 days post-acupuncture.

The study's findings reveal that out of over 14 million acupuncture treatments, there were 8,361 reported cases of nerve injury, resulting in an incidence rate of approximately 5.76 per 10,000 procedures. Key findings include:

- Age as a Risk Factor: Older patients, particularly those over 60, exhibited a higher incidence of nerve injuries compared to younger patients.
- Comorbidities: Several chronic conditions, including diabetes, hypothyroidism, liver cirrhosis, chronic kidney disease, and immune disorders, were significantly associated with an increased risk of nerve injury post-acupuncture.
- Treatment Frequency: Patients receiving more than 36 acupuncture sessions had a notably higher risk of nerve damage compared to those with fewer sessions.

The document concludes by emphasizing the necessity for careful patient profiling and a cautious approach in acupuncture practices, given the identified risk factors. It suggests that training for practitioners, improved patient education, establishment of guidelines regarding the maximum acupuncture sessions could mitigate the risk of nerve injury. The study also highlights the importance of ongoing research to further understand the mechanisms behind these findings and to develop preventive strategies tailored to high-risk populations.

Department of Digital Business, Bina Nusantara University, Jakarta, Indonesia

Abstract. The Business Model Canvas (BMC) is a strategic management framework that helps companies map out fundamental values within their operations. The BMC illustrates how a company creates value, delivers value, and enables the company to enhance value through more structured innovation. Incorporating environmental sustainability values into the Business Model Canvas (BMC) is essential to promote sustainable business practices. This research aimed to develop a canvas that integrates the company's business model with environmental sustainability values to build a sustainable business. Every business was asked to think about more environmentally friendly alternatives from all aspects of value proposition, value turnover, and value generation contained in the sustainable business model canvas called Green Business Model Canvas. Green BMC comprises Green Value Proposition, Customer Segment, Green Channels, Green Relationships, Green Partnerships, Green Resources, Green Activities, Green Revenue, and Green Costs. Green BMC can be used by various business scales in all business fields as an easy way to transform every business into a sustainable business. This research invited all parties to apply the Green Business Model Canvas to create joint case studies regarding green practices in sustainability-based business development.

3. 綠色通路（Green Channels, GC）

傳遞綠色價值主張的管道，包含使用環保包裝、低碳運輸等方式。

4. 綠色顧客關係（Green Customer Relationships, GCR）

維持與顧客的關係，推廣環保活動，促進顧客忠誠與綠色消費。

5. 綠色收入來源（Green Revenue Streams, GRS）

來自綠色產品或服務的收入，可能包含顧客願意支付的額外綠色溢價。

6. 綠色關鍵資源（Green Resources, GR）

支持綠色價值主張所需的資源，如環保原料、綠色供應鏈等。

7. 綠色關鍵活動（Green Activities, GA）

實施環境永續的核心活動，如減碳措施、循環經濟實踐等。

8. 綠色關鍵夥伴（Green Partnerships, GP）

協助提供綠色資源與活動的合作夥伴，優先選擇本地及環保意識高的夥伴。

9. 綠色成本結構（Green Costs, GC）

因實施綠色價值主張及相關活動所產生的成本。

此架構幫助企業在規劃商業模式時，全面考量環境永續因素，促進企業轉型為綠色永續經營。

歸納出前五大應用產業

文件中並未明確列出綠色商業模式畫布（Green BMC）應用的前五大產業，但根據文中提及的綠色商業模式特性及相關研究，可以推測以下五大產業是綠色商業模式應用的重點領域：

1. 製造業

尤其是注重環保原料、綠色供應鏈及低碳生產的製造業。

2. 物流與運輸業

包括綠色物流、低碳運輸方式（如電動車、自行車配送）等。

3. 包裝產業

採用環保包裝材料及可回收包裝設計。

4. 零售與消費品業

提供環保產品，滿足消費者對綠色商品的需求。

5. 服務業（特別是綠色服務）

如綠色諮詢、環境管理服務、可持續旅遊等。

這些產業因其對環境影響較大或消費者對綠色產品需求強烈，較適合採用綠色商業模式畫布進行永續轉型。若需要更精確的產業分析，建議進一步查閱專門針對綠色商業模式應用的產業報告或研究。

Industry Overview

Industries in the Motion Picture and Sound Recording Industries subsector group establishments involved in the production and distribution of motion pictures and sound recordings. While producers and distributors of motion pictures and sound recordings issue works for sale as traditional publishers do, the processes are sufficiently different to warrant placing establishments engaged in these activities in a separate subsector. Production is typically a complex process that involves several distinct types of establishments that are engaged in activities, such as contracting with performers, creating the film or sound content, and providing technical postproduction services. Film distribution is often to exhibitors, such as theaters and broadcasters, rather...
